FORT WORTH DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

RUSSELL DRIVER

No. 4:21-CR-200-O

PLEA AGREEMENT WITH WAIVER OF APPEAL

RUSSELL DRIVER ("Defendant"), the defendant's attorney, and the United States of America ("Government"), agree as follows:

1. Rights of Defendant: Defendant understands that he has the right
 - a. to plead not guilty;
 - b. to have a trial by jury;
 - c. to have his guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
 - d. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in his defense; and
 - e. against compelled self-incrimination.

2. Waiver of Rights and Plea of Guilty: Defendant waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offense alleged in Count One of the Indictment, charging a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846, that is, conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute a controlled substance. The defendant understands the nature and elements of the crime to which he is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume he has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence: The penalties the Court can impose include:
- a. imprisonment for a period not to exceed twenty (20) years;
 - b. a fine not to exceed $1,000,000, or both a fine and imprisonment;
 - c. a term of supervised release not to exceed three (3) years, which may be mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates any condition of supervised release, the Court may revoke such release term and require that the defendant serve any or all of such term as an additional period of confinement. The effect of a revocation of a term of supervised release is to make the overall period of incarceration longer;
 - d. a mandatory special assessment of $100;
 - e. restitution to victims or to the community, which may be mandatory under the law, and which the defendant agrees may include restitution arising from the offense of conviction alone;
 - f. forfeiture of firearms and ammunition; and
 - g. costs of incarceration and supervision.

4. Court's Sentencing Discretion and Role of the Guidelines: Defendant understands that the sentence in this case will be imposed by the Court after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The guidelines are not binding on the Court, but are advisory only. Defendant has reviewed the guidelines with his attorney, but understands no one can predict with certainty the outcome of the Court's consideration of the guidelines in this case. Defendant will not be allowed to withdraw his plea if his sentence is higher than expected. Defendant fully understands that the actual sentence imposed (so long as it is within the statutory maximum) is solely in the Court's discretion.

5. Immigration consequences: The defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to his immigration status if he is not a citizen of the United States. Under federal law, a broad range of crimes are removable offenses. The defendant understands this may include the offense to which he is pleading guilty, and for purposes of this plea agreement, the defendant assumes the offense is a removable offense. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding, however, and the defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the district court, can predict to a certainty the effect of the defendant's conviction on the defendant's immigration status. The defendant nevertheless affirms that he wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that the defendant's plea of guilty may entail, even if the consequence is the defendant's automatic removal from the United States.

6. Mandatory special assessment: Defendant agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $100.00, in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case.

7. Defendant's agreement: Defendant shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning his participation in the offense of conviction. Upon demand, Defendant shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding his capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution.

8. Government's Agreement: The government will not bring any additional charges against Defendant based upon the conduct underlying and related to the Defendant's plea of guilty. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against Defendant or any property.

9. Violation of Agreement: Defendant understands that if he violates any provision of this agreement, or if his guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute Defendant for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, Defendant waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, Defendant waives objection to the use against him of any information or statements he has provided to Government and any resulting leads.

10. Voluntary Plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

11. Waiver of right to appeal or otherwise challenge sentence: Defendant waives his rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal from his conviction and sentence. He further waives his right to contest his conviction and sentence in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Defendant, however, reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal of (i) a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of his plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

12. Representation of Counsel: Defendant has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with his lawyer and is fully satisfied with that lawyer's legal representation. Defendant has received from his lawyer explanations satisfactory to him concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of his rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to him other than entering into this agreement. Because he concedes that he is guilty, and after conferring with his lawyer, Defendant has concluded that it is in his best interest to enter into this plea agreement, and all of its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case.

13. Entirety of Agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 29th day of July, 2021.
